

CONTENTS OF ROOM

1. Acts of Parliament 1901-2000—foyer.
2. Official Hansard: NSW 1957-1975, Commonwealth 1975-1993.
3. Australian Dictionary of Biography.
4. Newspaper clippings files - 14 volumes.
5. Historical book collection.
6. Gifts, artefacts, illuminated addresses and memorabilia associated with Wal Fife's career.
7. Photographs and presentations
8. Files, books and personal papers associated with families researched and collected by Wal Fife.
9. Research material associated with his book—"Wal Fife: A Country Liberal."

Note: This material complements other material held by the National Library in Canberra.

A message from Wal Fife:

"Welcome to my office and library, set out as it was in my home at Gundry during the last twenty years of my working life.

I kept these manuscripts and publications intact so that future generations could see how a member of parliament's office was maintained at his home in 1988, and to make the material available for research."

When: 19th September:
10am - 4pm

Where: Mount Erin Convent

Entry is FREE

The book, "Wal Fife: A Country Liberal" will be available on the day with all proceeds going to the maintenance of the room.

Parking will be in the grounds via the Edmondson Street entry.
If this is full then attendees can park in Edmondson Street itself.

WAL FIFE
ROOM
OPEN DAY
SEPTEMBER
19TH 2015

Marcia and Wal Fife at the time of being awarded life membership of Kurrajong Waratah in 2001.

A tribute to Wagga Wagga's most successful politician, the Honourable Wallace Clyde Fife.

Supported by the Wagga Wagga & District Family History Society and the Wagga Wagga & District Historical Society

Above: Mount Erin entry

Above: The foyer entry

Above: The Wal Fife Room

Above: Freedom of the City of Wagga Wagga

Above: 1965 meeting of the Executive Council of New South Wales

Featured displays from the Wal Fife Room

Above: Political conquests